May be Switched to the English and American Yachts.

Test of Model and Seamanship

Is Suggested and Sir Thomas Lipton Awaits the Consent of the New York Yacht Club. Accusation Made Against Member of Shamrock.

Special Wire to Times-Democrat.

New York, Oct. 5.—Sir Thomas Lipton announced today that he will gladly acquiesce in the suggestion that the Shamrock be raced with Capt. Barr hand-picked crew, and backed by the Englishmen to take care of the Columbia. If the other side is willing to race a new series of races may be sailed. This would not affect the custody of the American Cup, but would show whether it was the model or the sail that won the race just closed.

race or showed execrable management yesterday. In view, however, of the uniform good work of the Columbia in all winds, other yacht sharpshooters consider Spears charges unfounded. Herreshoff says the Columbia was 15 per cent better this year than when she met the Shamrock 1 two years ago. The firm also says that constitution is a better boat than the Columbia by five minutes even though she was not chosen to defend the cup.

NEW YORK YACHT CLUB

Have Not Concluded to Accept Lipton's Last Proposition.

New York, Oct. 5.—Secretary Oddie of the New York Yacht Club, would not say today whether the club committee would take Lipton's suggestion that the races be sailed with the Shamrock and Columbia's crews changed.

SAILING MASTER

The Shamrock Gets Some Newspaper Hot Shot.

New York, Oct. 4.—John R. Spears, sailing master of the Shamrock, deliberately threw the

BURNING

Buildings in Different Parts of Tampa

Demonstrates That the Seed is Bearing Fruit.

Attempt to Make Striking Cigar Makers Go to Work or Pay a Penalty is Proving Disastrous.

Tampa, Oct. 5.—The strike of the cigar makers and forcing of the men to go back to the factories or work on street 30 days is bearing fruit. The big cigar factory of Balloran & Bros., and six other buildings were destroyed in west Tampa by incendiary fires. Meetings of strikers are being dispersed by armed guards.

CHAUNCEY

Will Marry a Fair Young Bride.

Special Wire to Times-Democrat.

New York, Oct. 4.—Senator Depew has at last announced his engagement to marry the lady is Miss May Palmer, whose father John Palmer, now dead, was the first president of the Mercantile bank in this city. Miss Palmer is young, rich and beautiful.

FOUR

Lives were Suddenly Put Out

In a Wreck

Of a Freight Train on Reading Railroad.

All the Victims of the Wreck were Philadelphia Railroad Men

And They were All Married Except One. Long Time Consumed in Clearing Up the Track.

Special Wire to Times-Democrat.

Reading, Pa., Oct. 5.—The wreck of a freight train on the Lebanon Valley division of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad between Harrisburg and Hummelstown at about 2 o'clock this morning killed four men. They were: Thomas F. Dolan, engineer; Patrick Kerr, conductor; Charles E. Mays, front brakeman; and Wm. McConsey, fireman. All were from Philadelphia and all were married except Mays. The track was torn up and the wreck was not cleared till after 10 o'clock.

NO LIVES LOST

In the Fire at the American Crayon Company.

Special Wire to Times-Democrat.

Sandusky, Oct. 5.—There is no truth in the story that lives were lost in the American Crayon Co. fire which destroyed the plant.

Miss Helen Long Dead.

Hingham, Mass., Oct. 5.—Miss Helen Long, second daughter of Secretary John D. Long, died Friday night. The end came sooner than was expected, although when the secretary was summoned from Washington early in the week it was known that his daughter's condition was critical. Miss Long died of pulmonary trouble, which had its inception after close attention to the social duties during Secretary Long's first term in the cabinet. Mrs. Long's health had failed and it was necessary for Miss Helen to take her place.

Damaged by Fire.

Joliet, Ill., Oct. 5.—The Joliet Store works was damaged between $30,000 and $50,000 by fire. The nickel plating room, the pattern room and the punch room were ruined, with their contents and machinery. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

TAX

Which was Levied for the State

Far Exceeds

Those Raised for That Purpose

In Former Years, so That While the Revenues are Increased

Burden of Taxation Remains Just as Onerous on the Individual as When the Revenues were Less.

Columbus, O., Oct. 5.—When the business men of Ohio go to the polls this year they should do so with some information touching the reliability of the boasted Republican claims in regard to the administration of the state's finances by the Nash administration. Although the state's revenue was vastly in excess of those of ten years ago the burdens of taxation are the same and the cost of state government in 1900 has been $1,619,999 more than it was in 1890. As partly accounting for this, here is an interesting table:

The expenditures of the Athens Hospital for the insane in 1890 were $127,378; in 1900, $145,943, an increase of $18,565.

For the Cleveland Hospital, 1890, $156,890; in 1900, $208,619, an increase of $51,729.

For the Columbus Hospital, 1890, $130,590; in 1900, $222,238, an increase of $91,648.

For the Dayton Hospital, 1890, $122,269, an increase of $13,114.

For the Toledo Hospital, 1890, $185,908, in 1900, $273,476, an increase of $87,568.

The Ohio Penitentiary, 1890, $310,121; in 1900, $329,067, an increase of $18,946.

The Boy's Industrial School, 1890, $335,597; in 1900, $439,545, an increase of $103,948.

The increased ordinary expenditure in the seven institutions in 1900 over 1890 were $402,149.

With proper management the present administration should have materially reduced the tax rate while keeping down expenses. Instead of that, expenses have grown enormously while the people still pay the fiddler at the same old price for his expensive music. Facts like these deserve to be remembered in the voting booth.

The Republican managers are alarmed over the situation in Hamilton county. The most encouraging reports have come from Cincinnati and vicinity to the Democratic state committee and to interested persons who have made independent inquiries in that section with view to learning the true aspect of affairs from a Democratic standpoint. The facts are known to the Republican committee and have created consternation among the followers of Governor Nash, while a corresponding degree of relief and satisfaction is noted among the friends of Colonel Kilbourne.

From best sources of information in Hamilton county it is learned that the Germans there, who constitute politically the most powerful element of the voting population, are up in arms against the Nash administration. Prominent Republican Germans of Cincinnati are out spoken in their purpose to use all their influence in favor of the Democratic state ticket this year, while still preserving their identification with the Republican party. These men insist that they are better Republicans than those who will vote for Nash, for they believe that the only hope of the party's ultimate salvation in this state rests with the present opportunity to defeat the governor's re-election. Among these is a well-known German clergyman of Cincinnati, the pastor of a large and influential flock and a life-long Republican. As the familiar saying is, he "makes no bones" of his opposition to Nash and is actively in the field for Kilbourne and the Democratic ticket. His is not an isolated example, however, for the number of his imitators among the Hamilton county Germans is large and constantly growing.

At the same time, the Foraker element in Cincinnati, distrusting the attitude of Hanna, Dick and Nash, is disposed to knite the Republican state ticket and preserve party loyalty by voting only the legislative ticket. Senator Nippert's nomination for lieutenant governor is now acknowledged to be the weakest that could have been made, for the betrayal of Caldwell arrayed the liberal element of Cincinnati against his successor on the ticket, while the anti-saloon people are no better satisfied with Nippert than they would have been with Caldwell. In the mean time the Democratic organization in Hamilton county is working harmoniously, taking advantage of the situation in the Republican ranks whenever the opportunity offers itself.

The loss of the county to the Republicans is now confidently expected at Democratic state headquarters and is not regarded as improbable by the Republican managers. The latter are doing everything possible to change the conditions here described, but thus far without success and apparently with no hope of strengthening their position between now and election.

Hon. A. W. Patrick of New Philadelphia, was a recent caller at Democratic state headquarters and gave the benefit of his observations on the progress of the campaign to the executive officers of the committee. Judge Patrick says that the stories published in Republican organs of his alleged ostracism from Colonel Kilbourne are base fabrications of the enemy. He feels that Democratic prospects are exceedingly bright this year and is disposed to do all he can to promote them. The judge will take the stump for the ticket. It is rumored that he left behind him at headquarters a substantial remembrance of his visit in the form of a document familiar in banking transactions.

Something of a novelty will develop at the Republican opening at Delaware from the presence in conspicuous seats of Mayor Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland and Mayor Samuel M. Jones of Toledo. The two mayors will receive special attentions from the Republican managers, having been invited to attend by no less a person than Governor Nash himself. The thing is looked upon as rather a joke in some quarters, but when the two mayors begin to make use on the stump of the ammunition they will acquire at the Hanna-Nash blowout, the joke will not be on the Democrats.

Speaking of Delaware, it is a solemn fact that the selection of that town for the opening would have insured a "frost", even if existing Republican conditions were not so chilly. The hotel accommodations are ridiculously inadequate, the city is cramped within itself, the chief railway station is two miles away, the place of meeting is unfit for October weather and practically all local conditions are unfavorable for such a gathering. Even Republicans who live in the town regret its selection and say that the event can only prove disastrous to its reputation. If anything like the 20,000 persons who in chairmen Dick hopes to haul there on free railroad tickets, attend there will be more kicking than eloquence and more cursing than politics. Of all points on this globe on the 19th of October, Delaware will be the one place for a sane man to avoid.

ALL

The Papers Held by Schley

At the Service

Of Navy Department if Desired by Them.

Lemley Grows Sarcastic Because Some New Papers Appear on Scene.

Counsel for Applicant Want Sampson Summoned as a Witness and Demand That He be Called.

Lemley was asked some time ago for all the papers of the Brooklyn. He was told that he had them. Today Schley's counsel sprung a second copy of Sampson's letter regarding the move on Santiago. "This" said Lemley sarcastically, "is another of all papers turned into the department from the Brooklyn. I will now ask Admiral Schley if his book in which the receipt of papers was recorded is also in his possession". Schley's counsel then admitted that it was and that this and any other papers were at service of navy department.

DIFFERENCE

In the Construction of a Sentence in "Dear Schley" Letter.

Washington, Oct. 5.—In the Schley naval court of inquiry Mr. Rayner, chief of counsel for Admiral Schley, asked Judge Advocate Lemly to summon Admiral Sampson as a witness in the case. The request grew out of a difference in the construction of a sentence in Admiral Sampson's letter to Commodore Schley, written from Key West May 20, while Commodore Schley, with the flying squadron, lay off Cienfuegos. This is known as the "Dear Schley" letter, and in it, as printed in the navy department documents supplied to the senate, the admiral said, after expressing his opinion that, notwithstanding the report that the Spanish squadron was in Santiago, it were better to continue to blockade Cienfuegos and Havana. "We shall continue to hold Havana and Santiago until we receive more positive information."

During the examination of Commander Raymond P. Rodgers, this dispatch was under consideration, when Mr. Rayner expressed the opinion that the word Santiago had been inadvertently used by the commander-in-chief, assuming that he meant to use the word Cienfuegos as better corresponding with the context. As the document was printed there was a parenthetical note, to which Admiral Schley's initials were attached, saying that evidently the wrong city had been mentioned. Mr. Rayner asked Judge Advocate Lemly to make this concession, but the latter declined to do so, saying that he would produce the original of Admiral Sampson's dispatch to prove that he had said Santiago. Then Mr. Rayner said: "I can not take that word Santiago to mean anything but Cienfuegos. It is an imputation upon Commodore Schley and I can not permit it to rest without summoning the author of the dispatch," to which Captain Lemly responded, "I have told you once before you can summon any one you please." "Then," retorted Mr. Rayner, "summon Admiral Sampson."

The witnesses for the day were Lieutenant C. W. Dyson of the bureau of steam engineering, concerning the coal supply of the flying squadron; Commander Raymond P. Rodgers, who was second in command of the battleship Iowa during the Spanish war and carried Admiral Sampson's dispatches of May 20 to Commodore Schley, and Commander Alton C. Hodgson, who was the navigator of the flagship Brooklyn. While Commander Rodgers was on the stand Mr. Rayner submitted a computation of shells from the American fleet, which had struck the wrecked vessels of Cervera's squadron, showing that at least 34 per cent of them were fired by the Brooklyn. This computation, Mr. Rayner said, had been prepared by Admiral Schley upon the basis of a report made by a board of survey, of which the witness was the senior member. Commander Hodgson gave a graphic description of the battle off Santiago, describing the part taken in it by the Brooklyn and explaining the change in the entry of that vessel's log.

Commander Hodgson said he had been navigator of Commodore Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, during the war with Spain and was on the bridge the day of the battle of July 3. He detailed the particulars of the scene.

ment. At one point he said: "Captain Cook starboarded the helm a little to parallel the course of the leading vessel, the Maria Teresa, which had made a broad sheer to port. He had hardly made that sheer, however, to port, before he fell off again for the reason, apparently, that a shot was fired from the Brooklyn's eight-inch gun. The Teresa got about our port beam and helm and was ported on the Brooklyn immediately after that. We were swinging with port helm. I heard the commodore sing out 'Hard aport,' or words to that effect, and Captain Cook sang out 'Helm is aport.' I saw at that time the crucial moment had arrived in making the turn, and I suggested to the commodore that that turn would run us into the Texas or very close to her. He said 'Damn the Texas. I cannot help that. She must look out for herself. He will take care of that.' And he also said, 'I do not propose to go in any closer and subject myself to a torpedo attack.'"

Meyer's Shortage. Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 5.—The board of county commissioners received the resignation of the defaulting auditor, William Meyer. The bondsmen of the retiring auditor were allowed to draw the amount of salary due Meyer for the last quarter, and paid over to the county the net sum of the shortage, $1,984.04. George Ortleib, who has been acting as chief deputy auditor, was appointed county auditor, and it is understood will draw but $1,800 a year, the balance of his salary going to reimburse the bondsmen, who will thus lose only $500.

Named For Congress. Watertown, N. Y., Oct. 5.—Colonel William H. Powell, United States army, retired, of Sacket's Harbor, was named for member of congress by the Democratic congressional convention for the Twenty-fourth district to succeed the late Albert D. Shaw. Colonel Powell was in command of the Ninth United States infantry in Cuba.

Special Wire to Times-Democrat.

Columbus, Oct. 5.—This was the last day for filing certificates of nomination, either by conventions or petition of candidates for state officers at the election to be held November 5, and five tickets have been certified to Secretary of State Laylin. The Republican ticket is headed by George K. Nash, of Columbus, for governor; Democratic, headed by Col. Kilbourne, of Columbus; Socialist, by Harry C. Thompson, of Cincinnati; Prohibition, by E. J. Pinney, of Cleveland and Socialists Labor, by John H. Juergens, of Canton. These tickets will appear on the Australian ballot in the order named.

DENIES

That Heistand Ever Approached Him

With Hemp Proposition for Favorable Consideration.

Allen Further Says That He Would Not be Capable of Considering Any Proposition of That Sort.

Special Wire to Times-Democrat.

Washington, Oct. 5.—In the Heistand Hemp investigation, assistant secretary of the navy, Allen, directly contradicted Heistand's testimony, in which the latter said he brought the hemp matter to Allen's attention and had asked for favorable consideration. Allen said Heistand never broached the hemp matter to him, never had he considered nor was he capable of considering such a proposition.

A SCRAP

Was Imminent for a Period Between Them.

Special Wire to Times-Democrat.

Washington, Oct. 5.—There was a sensational scene in the Heistand case today. Heistand, when on the stand, stated that Hawks had "Whimpered." Hawks jumped up, shook his fist at Heistand and said, "You lie." Members of the senate committee fled the scrappers before blood was shed.

Grain Market.

HARD BATTLE FOR LIFE.

Alaskan Prospector's Struggle With a Glacier Bear.

A Seattle correspondent of the San Francisco Chronicle says: Archie Park, a pioneer of Valdez, Alaska, was carried off by a gigantic white bear on Sept. 9, and had it not been for a small dog he would have lost his life. He was badly used up, and several bones were broken.

With two companions Park was prospecting the headwaters of the Situkine river and at the time of his exciting experience was some distance ahead of them on the trail. Hearing a noise in the bush, he investigated. To his surprise, he suddenly found himself face to face with an immense white glacier bear, which immediately came at him with an ominous growl. Park threw his rifle to his shoulder and fired, but probably did not hit as the bear rushed on and grabbed him. As Park felt the embrace of bruin he thought it was all off with him, but he had forgotten a little cur which he had previously been tempted to kill as a nuisance. With snapping and growling the dog worried the bear into dropping Park.

Park had heard that if one played dead a bear would leave him alone, but the plan did not work. Having driven the dog back, the bear again grabbed Park and was making off with him when the dog again attacked and succeeded in making bruin drop him a second time. This time Park crawled off into the bush, and in the meantime his companions, having heard the noise, came up and opened fire on the bear, which made a hasty retreat.

Park was picked up a mass of blood and bruises. Several bones were broken, and his scalp was torn loose. The affair occurred 100 miles from the nearest camp, and at the last account, Park was being treated with elixir made from wild animals.

New Light on Columbus. An important work which throws a fresh light on the discovery of America by Columbus has been written by Henry Vignaud, first secretary of the United States embassy at Paris.

Mr. Vignaud, who is the vice president of the Americanists' society of Paris, has made a life study of the early history of America. He says: "The present work is intended to show that for the last four centuries we have been deceived by a fraud which hides from us the real beginnings of Columbus' project and that the famous documents ascribed to Toscanelli, the learned Florentine astronomer, were fabricated. I submit excellent reasons for believing that Toscanelli never wrote the letter of 1474 to King Alfonso of Portugal and never traced the chart alleged to have accompanied it. Columbus' design was not founded on any scientific basis, but on positive information as to the existence of lands to the westward."

THE STAGE

Tonight—The Chicago Opera Co. Monday—Way Down East. Saturday matinee and night—The Man from Mexico.

"Standing room only" marked the reappearance of "The Evil Eye" at Fairout's opera house last night, every seat having been sold before the rise of the curtain, and the big audience had another occasion to go home well pleased with the splendid evening's entertainment. Charles Loder, always a favorite, was at his best, while the evolutions of the brothers Kennard, as Nid and Nod kept the audience tuned up to the proper note. The chorus and ballet were exceptionally fine, both as to voice and appearance and taken as a whole there has been nothing superior to the "Evil Eye" at the opera house this season.

The Chicago Opera Co. is singing "The Music Hater" to the usual large matinee audience this afternoon. The company is not a larger one, but every number sings with spirit and skill and all are possessed of good voices. The production is very meritorious and far superior to the usual popular priced opera companies.

An altogether too brief engagement of that great drama "Way Down East" is announced for Monday night. It is too brief, because if one is to believe what is said of the success of this famous play elsewhere, it is sure to create a sensation. It is a story of New England life told by Lottie Blair Parker, intelligently elaborated by Joseph R. Crismer, and presented in this city under the direction of Mr. William A. Brady who is responsible for the metropolitan production of the same play. For nearly two years it delighted New Yorkers. Mr. Brady is responsible for having afforded an avenue to the stage for a play wholesome, pure and instructive in its character and exquisitely delightful in the lesson that it inculcates. It is to be given here with a superb cast and an essential novelty in the way of a snow storm, not the ordinary stage paper snow, but a storm, a genuine, furiously driven storm, such as may be seen anywhere in midwinter in New England. The inventor that produced this mechanism has certainly studied nature; but the play does not need to depend on any of its effects for a claim as to merit. It has a special appeal to any one morally inclined who can grasp an excellent lesson, exquisitely and refreshingly told. A person who has gone to see "Way Down East" will want to see it again, and will want to see another play of the same type. The motive and the atmosphere of the play evidence a master mind in construction. It is wholesome, elevating in its tone, and the authors seem always in good taste and at all times unobjectionable. The rural atmosphere is said to be cleverly maintained, and the characters convincing and interesting. Another charm of the play is said to be the excellence of the dialogue and its extreme simplicity, the pathos affecting as well as the humor. There are a dozen or more characters, all of sharply contrasted types. There is an old New England farmer, naturally generous, but quite narrow minded, and there is a manly vigorous hero, an eccentric constable, a ridiculous physician, an absurd professor of botany, a delectably sweet heroine, a gossip, mischief-making old maid, a dainty, ingenious little miss and other very quaint and yet life-like characters. There is the village church choir, and a score of other features that seem slight in themselves, but all serving to make up a most inviting and pleasurable whole.

Next Saturday, matinee and night, Walter E. Perkins comedians will present the successful comedy, "The Man from Mexico," by H. A. Du Couquet, author of "My Friend from India." Those who saw the last named play will know what to expect when the statement is made that "The Man from Mexico" is funnier and has been more successful than its predecessor. It was the vehicle which made Willie Collier his first substantial success, and has delighted large audiences from Maine to California. The company which will present the play here is a strong, well balanced one, fully capable of handling the many funny lines and situations in "The Man from Mexico."

David Warfield surprised those who thought it would be impossible for him to sustain for three acts interest in his familiar Ghetto type. In "The Auctioneer" written for him by Lee Arthur and Charles Klein and staged by David Bolesco, he easily proved the power of his art and personality. The touches of pathos in the character of Simon Levi were supposed beyond Mr. Warfield. But they are not and he blends them with his humor naturally and with telling effect. Tears and Warfield seem inconspicuous to those who saw him lately at Weber & Fields' and the Casino. Yet many persons wiped their eyes during performances of "The Auctioneer" last week. Maude Winter, Marie Bates and Brandon Tynan contribute to the success of the play.

Few artists who have appeared for the first time as stars in New York have been given more cordial receptions than those nightly accorded Mr. Stoddard at the Theatre Republic, where he plays Lucian Campbell in Augustus Thomas' and James McArthur's play founded on Dr. John Watson's "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush." Though coming forward as a star when most actors would be willing to retire from active stage life, the veteran shows by his faithful, artistic portraiture his best days are by no means behind him.

Kirke La Shelle has given Mr. Stoddard the support of a strong company and the advantage of thoroughly appropriate scenery. Mr. Jennings, Reuben Fox, Marion Abbott, Hma La Pierre and Mr. Booth all share the acting honors with the star, judging from the warm attitude of the large audiences.

Of the American plays and players in London "Are You a Mason?" seems to have secured the biggest hit. Nat Goodwin in "When We Were Twenty-One" is a strong second, while "The Whirl of the Town" is almost being the distance flag.

The novel snow storm in the production of "Way Down East" is worked off by electricity. The scene is a kitchen with a door and window. About ten feet above the floor and just at the stage right of the door are erected appliances so placed that the wind causes the air to take a sort of a whirligig course down past the door and the window. The papers are dropped out of a box while salt goes from cylinders into this wind. The beautiful snow beats against the window and when the door is opened the wind and the snow whistles chill in the door way.

The new plays dealing with the Boer-English war are "The Red Kloof," with Louis Mann and Clara Lipman as the stars, and "The Outpost," in which J. R. Emmet and Lottie Gilson have the leading roles. The former though favored with the Monn-Lipman prestige is a dismal failure while "The Outpost" seems a distinct success.

Another band of Lima favorites, the Keystone Dramatic Co., are booked for a week's engagement in the near future.

Horse Sense.

"Any fool can take a horse to water, but it takes a wise man to make him drink," says the proverb. The horse cats when hungry and drinks when thirsty. A man eats and drinks by the clock, without regard to the needs of nature. Because of careless eating and drinking "stomach trouble" is one of the commonest of diseases. Sour and bitter risings, belchings, unnatural fullness after eating, dizziness, headache, and many other symptoms mark the beginning and progress of disease of the stomach.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion, and a nutritious food. It cures through the stomach diseases of other organs which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach, and it strengthens the stomach, purifies the blood, cures obstinate cough and heals weak lungs.

"I was taken with Grippe, which resulted in heart and stomach trouble," writes Mr. T. R. Cavell, Merchant, Armstrong Co., N. C. "I was unable to do anything a good part of the time. I wrote to Dr. Pierce about my condition, and he wrote me back, 'I have used your Golden Medical Discovery,' which I did. Before I had finished the second bottle I began to feel better. I have used six bottles. I feel thankful to God for the benefit I have received from Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I can highly recommend it to all persons as a good and safe medicine."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets keep the bowels healthy.

Work on New York's Subway.

One-fourth of the work on the rapid transit tunnel in New York city has been completed at a cost of $8,500,000. Two hundred blocks have been opened and the tunnel is practically complete in thirty-five blocks. The tunnel has been driven through seventeen blocks of solid rock. At present 8,000 men are at work. August Belmont, John B. McDonald, the contractor, E. D. Bryan, his general manager, and William Barclay Parsons, his chief engineer will go to London and Paris soon to inspect the underground roads in those cities.

Doctor David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy FREE

"The Kind That Cured Your Grandfather."

The free distribution of trial bottles of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is working miracles everywhere.

No form of Kidney, Liver, Bladder or Blood disease, or the distressing sicknesses so common among women, can long withstand the great curative power of this famous specific.

A small quantity of this wonderful medicine has more curative power than barrels of other remedies," says a prominent New York City Physician.

It is the most successful medicine ever discovered for the Kidneys, Liver and Blood.

Its record of cures has made it famous in medical circles everywhere.

It is the most reliable Spring Medicine because it purifies the blood and dissolves the excess of uric acid in it.

It restores the Kidneys and Bladder to their normal functions and gently moves the bowels.

It is better for Constipation than any pills.

Better for the nerves than any sedative.

Better for the weak, infirm and aged than any tonic.

It is a vegetable help to the stomach and bowels in performing their duties properly.

It overcomes and permanently cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Bilioussness and Rheumatism.

For the weaknesses and sicknesses peculiar to women, no other medicine has such a record of cures to its credit.

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the only Kidney medicine that does not constipate.

Most Kidney and Liver medicines contain poisonous and deleterious drugs that never should be taken into the system; they injure the stomach and impair digestion.

Remember, Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is absolutely harmless.

It is absolutely and purely vegetable.

It contains no narcotics or minerals in any form, no dangerous stimulants, no mercury or poisons.

Children and invalids can take it with perfect safety.

It is a blessing in old age.

Upon investigation it was found that 91 per cent. of those who had used the trial bottle had received such benefit that they purchased large sized bottles of their druggists and were cured.

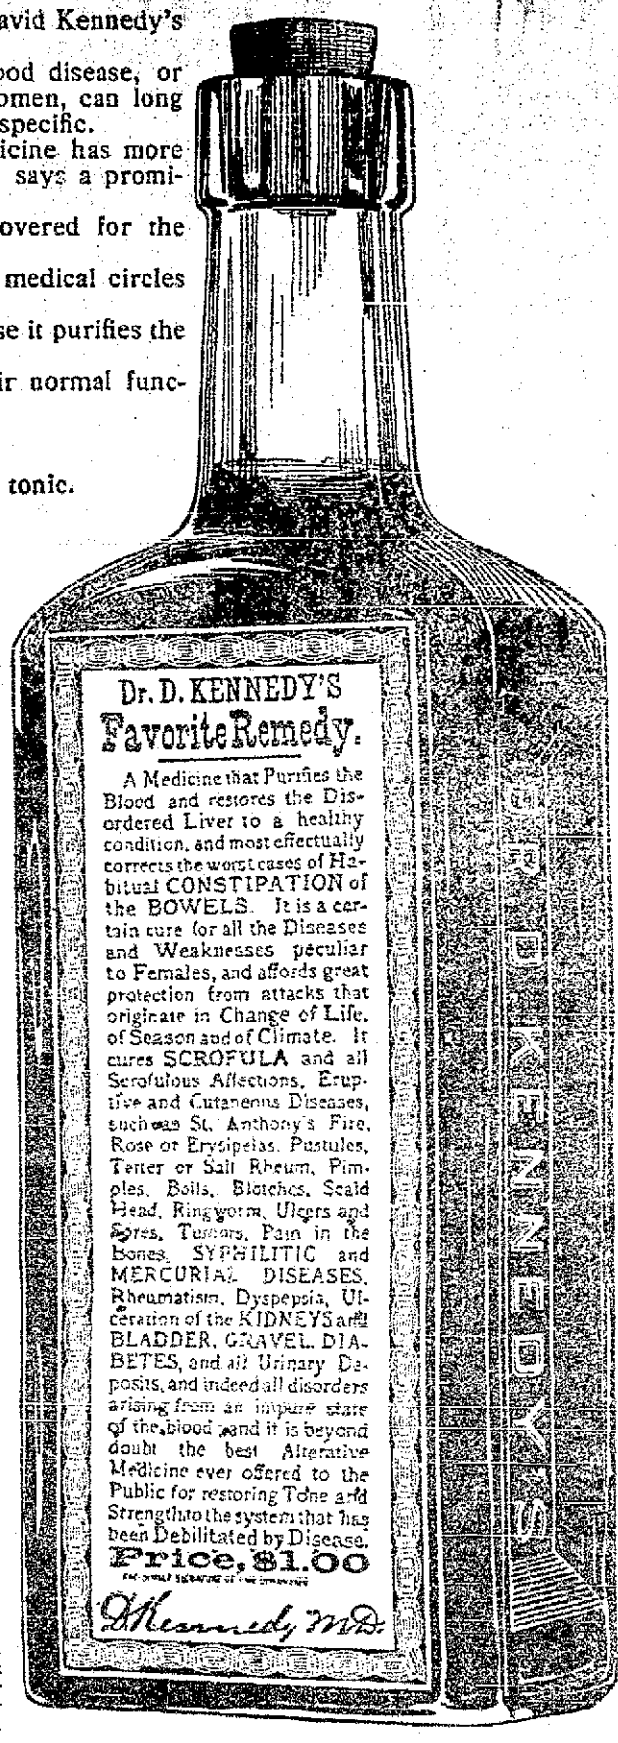

It matters not how sick you are, how long you have suffered, or how many physicians have failed to help you, Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy will cure you if a cure is possible.

TRY THIS TEST

Put some urine in a glass tumbler and let it stand twenty-four hours; if it has a sediment, or if it is pale or discolored, milky or cloudy, stringy orropy, your Kidneys or bladder are in a bad condition. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy speedily cures such dangerous symptoms as pain in the back, inability to hold urine, a burning, scalding pain in passing it, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night, the staining of linen by your urine and all the unpleasant and dangerous effects on the system produced by the use of whiskey, wine or beer.

Trial Bottle Free

By special arrangement with the Dr. David Kennedy Corporation the readers of the TIMES are enabled to obtain a trial bottle of this wonderful medicine and a pamphlet of valuable medical advice absolutely free, postpaid, by simply sending their names and address to the DR. DAVID KENNEDY CORPORATION, 100 Broadway, New York, and mention having seen this notice in the TIMES. The publishers of this paper guarantee to the readers of this paper a trial bottle of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy free of charge, or direct, $1.00 a bottle, 6 bottles for $5.00.

Entertaining.

Home was Made Beautiful
by the Use of Interior Decorations

And a Pleasing Program Added Additional Interest to the Affairs.
News and Notes of Those Coming and Going.

At their elegant new home on south Main street last night Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Fess observed with propitious festivities the occasion of their 15th wedding anniversary. Some sixty guests assisted in making the event a social success. This is the first congregation of guests in the spacious new home since its completion; the "house-warming" under the circumstances having a doubly pleasant significance. The house was beautifully lighted, also artistically decorated with flowers. Mrs. Fess was assisted in her readings by Misses Lenna Rudy and Goldie Fess. During the evening Mrs. J. B. McWhirter edited the guests by her readings. Miss Lola Baumgardner also assisted in the entertainment program. The celebrants were the recipients of appreciated presents from admiring friends. The elaborate function was thoroughly enjoyable.

South Lima relatives of Walter Ballard, who was kidnapped presumably by gypsies at Kenton Wednesday evening, were glad to learn this morning that he had succeeded in returning home. He was driven several miles south of Kenton, when in an unguarded moment he crawled out of the wagon, driven rapidly. He arrived home just as a general alarm was sounded to have a thorough search made for the stolen boy. It was some time before he recovered sufficiently from his fright to tell of his thrilling experience. His relatives here are happy to know he is safe.

Mrs. H. Businger with her son Harold, are visiting at the home of W. C. Fess on south Main street.

C. Miley, from Weston, is visiting south Main street friends.

Mrs. L. Crestinger, from Milton Center, attended the Fess reception last night.

Rev. Seward Baumgardner, of Colina district evangelist for the Methodist church, will occupy the pulpit at Grace church at both services tomorrow.

Miss Mary Miller has gone to Rockford because of the critical illness of her sister.

Miss Mande Furrey, from Kenton, is the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. R. G. Devoe, on south Elizabeth street.

Ralph Quinn, of Dayton, who has been visiting here has gone to Delphos for a few days stay.

Mrs. Sophia Fletcher, on Broadway, went yesterday to Bowling Green, where she will remain a week.

Mrs. George Himes, with Mrs. William Walters returned last night from a trip to Alger.

Lewis Chapman, from south Warsaw, was a business visitor in south Lima yesterday.

Josiah Williams on south Main street, is sufficiently recovered from his recent severe illness to resume employment.

Charles Simons, accompanied by his wife, is attending the Buffalo exposition.

Mrs. A. C. Wood, of south Main street, who successfully underwent an operation at the hospital is improving rapidly, expecting soon to return to her home.

Miss Ella Truckmartin visited at Wapakoneta yesterday.

Charles Woolley, from Huntington, Ind., will spend Sunday with south Lima friends.

Dr. Briggs has returned to Kenton, after a few days stay in this locality.

Samuel Ward left this afternoon for Toledo, where he will visit a week.

Miss Della Roberts from Kenton, is the guest of south Main street friends.

HORSES IN WASHINGTON.

Popularity Increased by Roosevelt's Equestrian Predilection.

President Roosevelt's predilection for horsemanship riding, which is shared by his wife and three daughters, M. A. Allen, says the Washington correspondent, will bring that delightful form of exercise into greater vogue.

Washington has not been a city where the praises of the horse needed to be sung. Equestrian skill never lost fashion at the capital. In the past two years there has been a notable revival of interest in fine horses.

Extensive stables have been built, and the millionaires whose homes are in different parts of the country have sent their best steeds to Washington.

Among these may be mentioned Attorney General Knox, who maintains thirty well bred horses. Five of these are saddle animals. Mr. and Mrs. Knox, Miss Rebecca and two of the boys are skilled riders and at Pittsburgh were frequently seen as a merry cavalcade.

Colonel Edward Morrell of Philadelphia has transferred his fine stable from Newport to this city.

Senator Clark of Montana has recently established a large stable on L street between Nineteenth and Twentieth. He owns a number of thoroughbreds and has brought some of them from the western prairies around Butte to Washington.

Among the belles of Washington are some skilled and fearless riders, notably the Misses Leiter, who follow the hounds and ride steeds that can take a double jump easily and clear a fence or ordinary ditch with a bound.

The Misses Bates, the daughters of the paymaster general of the army, are skilled riders, and Miss Ruth Hanna is skilled at all kinds of field sports.

Miss Mabel Merriam, daughter of the director of the census, and Miss Daisy Bloomer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Bloomer, are fearless equestriennes. Miss Alice Roosevelt and Miss Rebecca Knox will soon be added to this list.

REFORM IN NOMENCLATURE

English to Be Substituted For Foreign Names of Birds.

Robert Ridgway, chief ornithologist of the Smithsonian institution, writes the Washington correspondent of the Chicago Tribune, has about completed the unusual task of popularizing the literature of birds by inventing plain and appropriate English names for some 5,000 or more South and Central American varieties that have of course Spanish names, by which they are known in the country where they are common, and also names of Latin derivation by which they are known to science, but which are destitute of plain English names.

Mr. Ridgway takes the view that English is now the dominant tongue and that as a language it is becoming universal in its application every day, so much, in fact, that the demand for plain English terms in law, education, science, etc., has come to be felt on every hand. He realizes that outside of a small group of ornithologists few people know or care to learn the scientific names of birds of Greek or Latin derivation, difficult of pronunciation and impossible to remember, when plain English terms would serve the purpose quite as well, and in the book that he has prepared and which goes to press next week he has supplied this want by employing English in place of scientific names for American birds.

This is the first time in the history of science that such a thing was ever attempted, and the result will be watched with interest by both American and English scientists.

HAVING

Trouble Getting Into
Fort Wayne

Are the Electric Lines That Want to Build.

An Editorial Review of the Situation With a Reminder of What Should be Done.

Fort Wayne has a controversy on about the rights and privileges to be granted proposed interurban lines and the questions involved are being debated by the factions to an extent that alarms those who see the possibility of a defeat of a cherished idea. At the present time several companies are knocking at the gates for an entrance and one of them is the line that will evidently be built from this city through Van Wert, at the back of which are the promoters headed by attorney D. J. Cable. The committee on franchises has been holding some warm meetings and objections have been raised to various propositions, the freight question being the principal bugaboo raised by those who are opposing the granting of a franchise. The railroad companies' supporters, however, insist that the hauling of freight means only express matter and small packages, it not being the intention of the electric line to carry the class of stuff indicated by those who are in opposition to the new enterprise.

The situation has drawn from the Fort Wayne Sentinel, the following editorial comment:

"The interurban railway matter is squarely up to the city council. The people in general and business interests in particular are waiting patiently but expectantly for prompt settlement of this long-revered and much delayed matter. The welfare of the entire city is in a measure dependent on the outcome of the franchise now under discussion. There will be no patience with any attempt to delay a conclusion.

"It will not require much time for the franchise committee to look thoroughly into the contract lately made by the board of works with the Fort Wayne and Southwestern company and submitted to the council for approval. The whole ground has been gone over repeatedly during the past year and there can hardly be a councilman who is not familiar with the situation; it can hardly be possible there is anything to prevent a report at the next meeting of the council, if the report should not at any time be forthcoming the council should demand it.

"There is more involved in the settling of this matter than the future of the Southwestern road. Other interurban lines will come into Fort Wayne if they are given a way to get in. None other will hardly attempt to come in if it is the purpose to give this city the reputation of being disposed to fight instead of welcome these enterprises.

"The time has come when Fort Wayne must determine what the policy is to be toward interurban railway enterprises. The line built to the border of the city and waiting to come must not be held up a day unnecessarily. As we have said heretofore, we believe the route now proposed is about the least objectionable that can be chosen. Let there be action and at once."

A New Departure

A New, Effectual and Convenient Cure

For Catarrh.

Of catarrh remedies there is no end but of catarrh cures, there has always been a great scarcity. There are many remedies to relieve, but very few that really cure.

The old practice of snuffing salt water through the nose would often relieve and the washes, douches, powders and inhalers in common use are very little, if any, better than the old fashioned salt water douche.

The use of inhalers and the application of salves, washes and powders to the nose and throat to cure catarrh is no more reasonable than to rub the back to cure kidney disease. Catarrh is just as much a blood disease as kidney trouble or rheumatism and it cannot be cured by local treatment any more than they can be.

To cure catarrh, whether in the head, throat or stomach, an internal antiseptic treatment is necessary to drive the catarrhal poison out of the blood and system, and the new catarrh cure is designed on this plan and the remarkable success of Stuart's

Catarrh Tablets is because being used internally, it drives out catarrhal infection through action upon stomach, liver and bowels.

Wm. Zimmerman of St. Joseph, relates an experience with catarrh which is of value to millions of catarrh sufferers everywhere. He says: "I neglected a slight nasal catarrh until it gradually extended to my throat and bronchial tubes and finally even my stomach and liver became affected, but as I was able to keep up and do a day's work I let it run along until my hearing began to fail me and then

I realized that I must get rid of catarrh or lose my position as I was clerk and my hearing was absolutely neglected.

"Some of my friends recommended an inhaler, another a catarrh salve but they were no good in my case, nor was anything else until I heard of Stuart's

Catarrh Tablets and bought a package at my drug store. They benefited me from the start and in less than four months I was completely cured of catarrh although I had suffered nearly all my life from it.

They are pleasant to take and so much more convenient to use than other catarrh remedies that I feel I cannot say enough in favor of Stuart's

Catarrh Tablets."

CHILD

Was Struck by a Street Car

And the Electric Railroad Co. is Sued.

Damages in the Sum of $20,000 Asked for Because of Injuries Sustained by Little Geo. Enright.

A twenty thousand dollar damage suit was begun this morning against the Lima Electric Light and Power Company by John O'Connor, who represents the real plaintiff, Geo. Enright, as his next best friend. The latter is the two and one-half year old lad who was injured in an accident on the 24th of last June, when he was struck by car 56.

The child, with his parents, was visiting at the home of Mr. O'Connell at the time of the accident, and was playing near the track, located between Vine street and the C. & E. railroad, when the car bore down upon him. He was carried some distance and his head and body cut and bruised. According to the allegations in the petition an injury to the spinal column has rendered his lower limbs practically useless, paralysis resulting; the brain is also affected, producing spells of epilepsy and the eyes are crossed.

DANCING SCHOOL.

FELL OFF

A Rapidly Moving Train on the C. H. &amp; D.

Narrow Escape of H. L. Brice from Frightful Injury Last Night.

Herbert L. Brice was the victim of an unfortunate accident last night, the consequences of which are so much less serious than they might have been that his many friends feel like extending to him congratulations that he is still in the land of the living.

Mr. Brice, who has been ill for the past fortnight, yesterday afternoon, in company with his brother Jno. K. Brice, started for Wyoming, Ohio, for a few days visit with his sister, Mrs. Edward Ritchie, leaving here at 4:20 on the C. H. & D.

As the train was running along between Hamilton and Glendale, Mr. Brice stepped to the rear of the platform of the chair car for a breath of fresh air. Just then the train, which was running at the rate of 60 miles an hour, made one of the sharp turns, which abound so plentifully along that portion of the road, and Mr. Brice losing his balance, was hurled from the platform on which he had been standing.

The train was then passing through the hamlet of Mulhauser, and Mr. Brice fell upon a heap of cinders, cutting a gash in his head and bruising his shoulders somewhat. He gathered himself up and boarded a car which passed in a few minutes on the trolley line which runs parallel with the C. H. & D. road through that village and soon reached Mrs. Ritchie's home in Wyoming, where he now is.

A telephone message received from Mr. Ritchie this morning stated that Mr. Brice was able to be around, and suffered no evil consequences from his fall other than soreness from his bruises.

Those Who Took Part in the Musical.

Mrs. J. W. Van Dyke Opened
Her Hospital Home to a Number of Guests.

Clubs, Society and the Social Life of the City in a Flutter Now
That the Season is Fully Developed.

No one in Lima entertains more frequently or more elaborately than Mrs. J. W. Van Dyke, whose handsomer apartment home is a fitting place for brilliant parties. It was beautifully and tastefully decorated yesterday with American beauties and aster in the drawing room and music room, palms in the hall and billiard room, while a large bowl of xenulias graced the dining table. The guests were numerous, filling several rooms comfortably by ten o'clock, when the programs, decorated with dainty watercolors of summer and autumn flowers were passed and the numbers given as follows:

Mrs. Wheeler.
Wm. J. Song With Wings Provided.
Miss Burton.
Miss Altschul.
The Reception.
Mr. Lull.
Mrs. Robinson.
Wm. J. Song.
Mrs. Gung, Mr. Lull.
After this feast of music was given with numerous encores, delighting everyone, a two course luncheon was daintily served, the ices being in musical forms in keeping with the occasion. The guests lingered long in the beautiful rooms, it being fully two o'clock before they dispersed.

The Avalante club will meet next Wednesday evening with Mrs. Phil-bury, of Prospect avenue.
The Woman's Culture club will meet next Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Ella Bennett, of north Jameson avenue.

The Sutorium circle were very pleasantly entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. J. L. Andrews, of west Market street. Rosa Bonheur was the artist discussed. Music and refreshments added to the pleasure of the meeting.

The Winodaghsis circle were most pleasantly entertained on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. A. S. Bower, who served a dainty luncheon after the hours for sewing.

The T. and T. club was royally entertained last evening by Mr. and Mrs.
W. L. Mackenzie. The new programs were given out and the numbers for the evening were: An address by the president, Mrs. Borges; roll call, Governmental Heads Stricken by Violence; Second Symphony, Grey, Mrs.

Thomson and Mrs. Mackenzie; The Aims of Anarchy, Mr. Mackenzie; The Menace of Immigration, Mr. Roby;
Song—All Things of Marden, Mrs.
Roby; The Anarchist's Personnel, Mr.
Borges; How to Suppress Anarchy,
Mr. Motter; Shall Free Speech be Limited, Mr. Thomson.

The O. K. S. club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. L. X. White, of east Kibby street, and arranged for their winter's work.

The Twentieth Century club held their initial meeting for this season next Monday evening at the home of Mrs. J. N. Hutchinson, of west North street, taking up the study of English history and art.

The Chionians will for Monday evening enjoy the Pan-American exhi-sition, various members taking part in the program, Mrs. Albrecht being hostess.

The Lotus club will hold their first meeting for this season on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. I. S.
Motter, of west Spring street. Their work this year will combine a study of literature and art.

The Adelphiads met with Mrs. H.
O. Miller, of east McKibben street, and made plans for the season of 1901-1902.

The Day View club will open their season's work by meeting Monday afternoon with Mrs. John Boser, of west Spring street. They will study Shakespeare under the direction of Miss Morris.

The Philomatheans will this year
continue their study of Shakespeare, meeting next Monday evening with Mrs. J. L. Andrews.

The Coterie club will be entertained by Mrs. L. E. Ellis on Tuesday afternoon at her home on south Baxter street.

The Sappho club will usher in their twelfth year with a musical at the pleasant home of Mrs. Walter Cooney, of west Market street, next Thursday afternoon. It is President's Day and a special program has been arranged for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Steele and all have gone to California for a several weeks trip.

Next Wednesday morning at St.
Rose church the marriage of Mrs. T.
Leahy's daughter Margaret and Mr.
Phillip O'Connor will occur.

The Kaffu Krapzenchen club will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs.
Ackerman.

The Bay View club will hold their first meeting Monday afternoon at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. E.
Grosjean. All members are urged to present.

The Round Table will meet with Mrs. Walter E. Booth, of north Mc-Donnell street, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Miss Gladys Downing, of west
Spring street, entertained the Young Ladies' Chapter of Christ church.

Last evening the Woman's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. entertained the ministers of the Lima churches and the superintendents of the Lima Sunday schools, serving an excellent supper midway in the social evening.

Demands Enlargement of the Plant.

Lima Brewery is Having Some New Buildings Added and Improvements Made.

The Lima Brewing company is making extensive improvements at their plant. The foundation is now under way for a bottling house, 60x90 and it is said when finished it will be one of the best equipped bottling houses in the state. This enterprising firm is also building a large brick stable with stalls for twenty horses. A large boiler room is also among the new additions and when finished they will put in three new boilers of 120 horse power each. This plant has developed wonderfully in the past few years and the enterprising owners, Messrs.
Seiber, Spannagle and Frueh are to be congratulated upon their marvellous progress.

SANURY

That Demon, Rheumatism, owes its existence to uric acid in the blood. Medicines for either internal or external use, may give some relief, without removing the cause. They may relieve the pain by stimulating the nerves. But no medicine can permanently cure Rheumatism. That is not a solvent of uric acid and at the same time cure for the kidneys. SANURY is the one medicine that fully fills these requirements. SANURY is the perfect solvent of uric acid. Uric acid, if dropped into a bottle of SANURY and the whole placed in a warm place, a place as warm as the body, will gradually be dissolved. This is the secret. SANURY not only dissolves the excess of uric acid of the blood but so that the kidneys, which you must know are at the bottom of the trouble, that they excrete the acid as they should and not only are the accumulations removed, with the consequent relief of the rheumatism, but the recurrence of the conditions is made impossible by the permanent cure effected of the kidneys.

IRISH KNIGHT FOILED

In His Game Attempt to Wrest From Uncle Sam the Americas Cup.

SERIES THE CLOSEST EVER SAILED

Lipton Takes His Defeat Philosophically, but Expresses Great Disappointment at His Failure to Secure One Race.

New York, Oct. 5.—With victory flags floating from her towering masthead and the ends of her spinnakers in honor of her concluding triumph in the cup races of 1901, the gallant sloop Columbia returned to her anchorage under the escort of the entire excursion fleet. She completed her defense of the honored trophy in another stirring race with the Shamrock II over a leeward and windward race of 30 miles, crossing the finish line two seconds behind her antagonist, but winning on the time allowance conceded by Lipton's boat by 41 seconds.

For the second time she has now successfully foiled the attempt of the Irish knight to wrest from our possession the cup that means the yachting supremacy of the world, and plucky Sir Thomas Lipton, standing on the bridge of the Erin, led his guests in three hearty hurrahs for the successful defender. "She is the better boat," he said, "and she deserves to be cheered."

The series of races just closed will always be memorable as the closest ever sailed for the cup, and Sir Thomas, although defeated, will go home with the satisfaction of knowing that his golden yacht is the ablest foreign boat that ever crossed the western ocean. The race, on paper, was the closest of the series, but because of the faking of the wind on the heat morning, as a contest of the relative merits of the yachts, it is not to be compared with the magnificent, truly run and royally fought battles of Saturday and Thursday. The conditions of the race at the start were very similar to those of Thursday. The wind was strong and from the shore, embroiling the sea with foam and piling up no small, ideal conditions for the challenger.

Notwithstanding the fact that the Columbia beat the Shamrock before the wind last Saturday, the challenger on Friday gained slowly but steadily all the way out and rounded 49 seconds before the defender, having actually gained 1 minute and 4 seconds. Immediately after the yachts turned their noses into the wind for the best home breeze moderated and turned fluky. At one time Columbia seemed a mile ahead, when a sudden catch of the wind allowed the Shamrock to point nearer the mark, and a mile from home the challenger appeared to be leading by fully half a mile. The talent began to feel nervous, but as the yachts approached the Irish the Yankee skipper, by some miracle, leaped forward, shoved his boat into the air like a phantom ship and 100 yards from home the two racers were altered on even terms. It was a pretty fight, and one seldom witnessed, when they crossed tail to rail, the white bowprit just lapping the golden boat's mast. The usual pandemonium that attends the final Yankee victory in a cup contest followed. Whistles, sirens, bells, bands and cheers united in a grand chorus of jubilation, and J. P. Morgan's steam yacht Corsair added to the terrific din by firing a national salute of 20 guns.

While taking his defeat calmly, Sir Thomas Lipton made no attempt to conceal the honest disappointment when he talked about the races on the Erin. "I am very disappointed," he said. "I can't hide that. I thought within 15 minutes of the finish that we had won. I should like to have got one race, but by way of consolation. It has been a severe strain on me. I have worked so hard for many months now and I am glad it is over. To have won would have been a joy greater than the day's disappointment. Columbia's win was fair and square and honorable. There is nothing to protest if I wanted to protest. In fact, I have a feeling in my heart that if there had been any error in judgment at all it would have been in my favor."

E. D. Morgan, the master of the Columbia, said: "I am very happy that we have won, and glad the trophy is in our hands. We certainly had to make a splendid fight for it. We had a splendid captain and a splendid crew."

A Startling Suggestion. London, Oct. 5.—There is a feeling of supreme disappointment in London over the failure of the Shamrock II to win even a single race. Those who denounced Sir Thomas Lipton's yacht, asserting that he was using his yacht to advance his business interests, now realize that his sportsmanlike efforts deserved a better result. The question is raised whether the defeat of the challenger was due to the superiority of American seamanship or the better constructive ability of the Americans. With a view of settling the question, The Daily Express has cabled Commodore Morgan and Sir Thomas Lipton, suggesting that they should arrange a race with the Columbia's crew on board the Shamrock II and the crew of the challenger on board the defender.

Rebels Ordered Jailed. Wilmett, Oct. 5.—From an absolutely authoritative source it was ascertained that President Castro Sept. 30 ordered the immediate imprisonment of all nationalists in Venezuela. The nationalists are revolutionists and followers of "El Heccho." This order was bound to be followed by national uprisings. They have already begun in certain parts of the country and can be expected in others.

MISS STONE'S RANSOM.

An Appeal to Christian America For Financial Aid.

Boston, Oct. 5.—The following appeal has been issued in behalf of Miss Stone by the prudential committee of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions: "To Christian America. The relatives and friends of Miss Ellen Stone, the missionary now held captive by brigands in the dark mountains, under sentences of death on October 8, if the ransom demanded, 20,000 pounds Turkish, $112,000 American, is not paid prior to that date, appeal to Christian America in their efforts to raise this large sum in time to assure her safe deliverance. Her situation is desperate. The government at Washington has done and is doing everything officially and humanely possible to secure her release. Notwithstanding all this, there is a possibility of failure of negotiations, and it is absolutely necessary that the amount of ransom be instantly raised. Messrs. Kidder, Peabody & Co., the eminent bankers of Boston, have consented to act as trustees of all funds which may be contributed for the purpose of ransom."

Didn't Know, Etc. Salem, O., Oct. 5.—Paul Johnson, 17, of Leontonia, was, it is believed, fatally shot by a companion, Ed Wren. A revolver with which the boys had been playing, and which was not supposed to be loaded, was playfully snapped in Johnson's face. The only loaded chamber was discharged, a 72-caliber ball entering the youth's head just over the left eye.

Shattuck's Bill. Cincinnati, Oct. 5.—Congressman W. B. Shattuck left for Washington to confer with the secretary of the treasury and Commissioner of Immigration Powderly regarding a bill prohibiting the entrance of anarchists into the United States, to be introduced in congress. Shattuck is chairman of the house committee on immigration.

Souza in England. London, Oct. 5.—Souza's English season promises to be a great success. All the seats at Albert hall, the most capacious in London, were sold for Friday night, and but few are left for the succeeding performances. The directors of Albert hall presented Souza with a gold medal as a testimonial of their respect.

Kruger to Roosevelt. Brussels, Oct. 5.—Le Petit Bleu asserts that Mr. Kruger has sent to President Roosevelt a protest against the exportation of horses and mules to South Africa. It also declares that he never contemplated sending a mission to the United States government to solicit permission.

GRAFTERS

Got Their Work in at the Fairs

And Touched Up Everybody in Sight.

Reported That a C. H. & D. Conductor is Minus His Watch and the News Butcher Lost $34.

Ottawa and Wapakoneta proved to be the assembling grounds of the light fingered gentry, if all reports can be verified, and the losses reported range from a few dollars to amounts that run well up into double figures. A gang of them practically took possession of the report at Ottawa and two passengers found upon their arrival at Dealer that they had been relieved respectively of $26 and $52.

The robbing did not stop there however, as the smooth game of the pickpockets was practiced with success on the train as the conductor had his gold watch nearly nipped from the chain and the news butcher will have to report a loss of $34 when he figures up his sales with the company he represents.

Wapakoneta also had a share of it, as complaints from there have it that police interference was dodged and not a few reports considerable loss. Some of the more daring of the gang even went so far as to search purses from the hands of visitors and depend upon getting lost in the crowds before there was a chance of detection. This ruse was carried out successfully in several instances.

Lima was particularly fortunate in this particular this year, as no report of robbery or hold ups was made and the police seemed to be able to give the necessary protection.

CHARMING

Event Thursday Evening at C. E. Nutting's Home.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nutting was the scene of a very pleasant occasion Thursday evening when about forty friends had taken possession of the home. The event was in honor of their daughter Katie's birthday. The rooms were very tastefully decorated with palms and cut flowers. The choral society of Grace M. E. church, under the leadership of C. S. Peitler, were present and rendered some beautiful selections. A number of select readings were rendered by Miss Bonnie Wetherill, Miss Bette Gorman and Miss Bette Corcoran. These were enjoyed until a late hour, when dainty refreshments were served, after which the guests departed, all wishing the hostess many happy returns.

Miss Katie was the recipient of many beautiful presents.

Perhaps You Wonder

if the tormenting cold that made last winter one long misery will be as bad this year. Certainly not, if you take Allen's Lung Balsam when tickling and rawness in the throat announce the presence of the old enemy. Do not expect the cold to wear itself out. Take the right remedy in time. Allen's Lung Balsam is free from opium.

TURN

Down Mr. Ohler's Proposition.

City Building

Will Not Be Built Very Soon,

As the Financial Condition Will Not Permit the Expenditure.

Arrangements May be Made to Move the Fire and Police Departments to Some Other Quarters.

Deducting conclusions from the special meeting held last night between the citizens committee and council committee, for the purpose of discussing the proposed new city building, it looks like an abandonment of the idea for the present at least. The meeting was the outgrowth of a proposition made by J. O. Ohler to turn over the city that portion of the Farrot estate lying between the alley and the post office, but it was the expressed opinion that the price asked was too much, and another location, not so centrally located would be just as desirable.

Present at the meeting were Messrs. Hoyt, Davis, Overly, Moses, Hage, Shannahan, Scully and McCullough, of the council and Joseph Goldsmith, W. H. Standish, J. R. Hughes, and E. B. Mitchell, representing the city. Mr. Hoyt presided and Mr. Shannahan was selected as chairman. The question at issue was brought up by Mr. Hughes, who stated that the city committee had, virtually, no report to make, but that it was the desire to get together and discuss the proposition in all its phases.

Mr. Mitchell acted as spokesman and stated that the matter had been discussed pro and con with a number of the prominent people of Lima and from opinions expressed, the conclusion was drawn that the $18000 asked by Mr. Ohler is exorbitant, and that after the land was purchased it would leave but $15,000 for the building, when not less than $75,000 should be expended on the kind of a city building Lima really needed. To put such a proposition before the people, considering the present indebtedness would certainly result in its defeat. Mr. Davis expressed the opinion that some arrangement should be made for the moving of the fire department and that whatever was done, the police department should go with it. It was finally reported to council in favor of rejecting Mr. Ohler's proposition and that the idea of erecting a city building be also abandoned for the present, but that the matter of locating a place for the fire department be taken up and further discussed.

TALK

On the Base Ball Situation.

How it Looks

To One Who Knows the Ins and Outs.

Mr. Cantillon, Representing the Coming Clubs, Figures in an Interview

And Says That the Players are Better Prepared to Look After Their Individual Interests Than Ever Before.

Commenting upon the base ball teams that are coming to Lima to play next Tuesday, the Toledo Times has the following to say and also adds an interview with Mr. Cantillon on base ball matters:

Joe Cantillon, who umpired in the American league the past season, was in the city yesterday in advance of the National and American league stars who will play in Toledo next Monday.

He says the prospects are very bright for the tour. The team will play a few games in the east and south and then go to the coast where the players are booked for five solid weeks. Cantillon was chuck full of baseball intelligence and generally knows what he is talking about as he is close to the throne in several directions. He said among other things that Watkins, of Indianapolis, would be placed at the head of the New York team and that the American league would be sure to invade the Gotham territory. With a team in New York and St. Louis, Ban Johnson will be in position to make peace with the National well knowing that he has as good a league as the biggest one. Until this is accomplished the baseball factions will continue to war and create sensations in the game. Beck and Bresnahan will play with the American league stars here. Beck will play second base and the famous Lajoie will play short. After the game here Lajoie will go to second, his old position. Beck will not accompany the team on the road but Bresnahan will be caught regularly. Cantillon thinks well of both of the Toledo players, and says Bresnahan is one of the best catchers in the business. Bancroft will take charge of the American leagues at Indianapolis and direct the destinies of the tour.

Cantillon talks freely of the ball situation to the sporting editor of The Times. Said he: "The minor leagues of the country never had such complete protection as they have at present and they will be able to successfully defend themselves against the inroads of the big leagues. The banding together of the smaller circuits makes an epoch in ball that has long been wanted. It becomes a necessity to take some such measure, but never before had they all gotten together to legislate for the common good. It will put a restriction on players that managers have desired for years. This practice of players jumping the smaller leagues for the large ones will become dangerous for the youngsters. Any young player who deliberately signs with a major league manager without getting away honorably is bound to make a mistake. He must be fast enough for either the National or American or else his occupation as a base ball player is gone forever. The proper thing for a young player, who is advised that he is good enough for fast company is to get away honorably. If he is approached by a manager he should inform the big league that he will not jump but will not object to being purchased. If a deal is made he has a chance, for if he cannot make good in fast company he can go back to the minor league without any stain on his base ball character. I think the big leagues will not make much of an effort to gobble up young players and the majority of the managers will respect the rights of the minor leaguers."

DAMAGES

Asked for on Account of Injuries.

Mrs. Kendall, of Lima, is Plaintiff, and the Trial is on at Findlay.

WRECKED

The Property Car of the Evil Eye.

Their Special Car Came Into Lima With Its End Mashed in by a Collision.

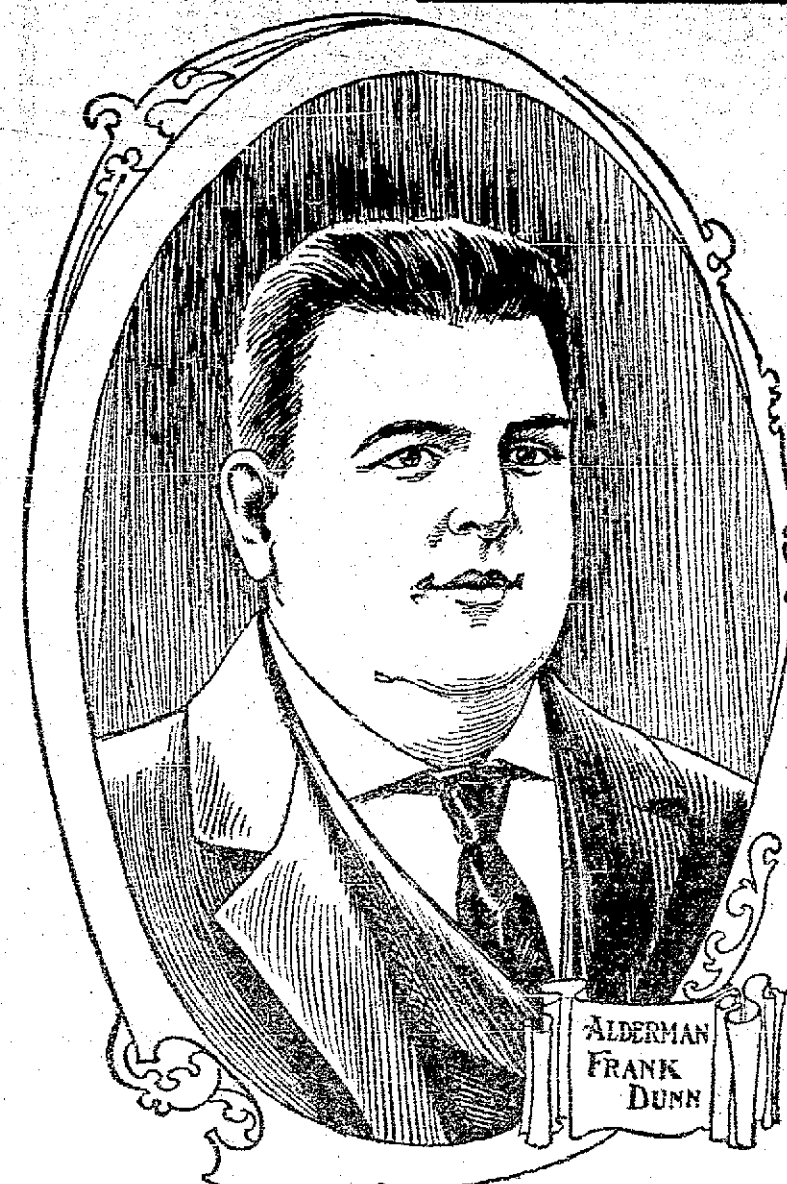

Thursday afternoon the management of the Evil Eye company had considerable trouble with the railroads in bringing their property car from Bungun to this city, says the Findlay Republican. They were enroute from Canton to this place over the Pennsylvania line and had to change to the Lake Erie at Bungun. The conductor had orders not to bring the car into the city on the passenger and so it was left behind and was brought in o'clock by a special engine. When it arrived, one end of the car was a complete wreck, but the paraphernalia was still intact with the exception of two lanterns that belonged to the troupe.

J. C. Burch, T. P. A., of the B. & O., South Western, who was called to Sidney last week by the death of his father, Hiram Burch, was in the city yesterday the guest of his father-in-law, Dr. E. Ashton.

A STRONG, VIGOROUS MAN

Is Liable to Break Down—Pe-ru-na is Sure to Restore.

Hon. Frank Dunn, Alderman Twenty-Fourth District, writes from 232 East Fifty-Eighth Street, New York City: The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.:

Gentlemen: "There is no remedy for a broken-down system that I know of which will so effectually restore health as Peruna."

"Whenever I am overworked or suffer from the consequences of a cold a few doses of Peruna builds me up again more quickly than anything I ever tried. I find it especially valuable for catarrh. Three bottles cured me three years ago of catarrh of the stomach and I have never had the least symptoms of it since."

Very truly,
FRANK DUNN, Alderman 24th Dist., N. Y. City.

A TONIC is a medicine that gives tone to some part of the system. There are different kinds of tonics, but the tonic most needed in this country, where catarrh is so prevalent, is a tonic that operates on the mucous membranes.

Peruna is a tonic to the mucous membrane of the whole body. It gives tone to the capillary circulation which constitutes these delicate membranes.

Peruna is a specific in its operation upon the mucous membrane. It is a tonic that strikes at the root of all catarrhal affections. It gives tone to the minute blood vessels and the terminal nerve fibres. Catarrh cannot exist long where Peruna is used intelligently. Peruna seeks out catarrh in all the hidden parts of the body.

Paul Landrum, writing from Atlanta, Ga., says:

"In January last I began the use of your Peruna and Manadu for what was termed organic heart trouble. At that time I could scarcely walk to my place of business without stopping to rest and on arrival felt completely exhausted. Had severe pains in my heart and general dizziness. After using the first bottle of Peruna I began to improve and today I feel that I am a sound man and I work fourteen hours a day without any bad feeling."—Paul Landrum.

A. M. Ikard, an employee of the C. B. & Q. R. R., West Burlington, Ia., writes:

"I had catarrh of the stomach and small intestines for a number of years. I went to a number of doctors and got no relief. Finally one of my doctors sent me to Chicago and I met the same fate. They said they could do nothing for me, that I had cancer of the stomach and there was no cure. I almost thought the same, for my breath was something awful. I could hardly stand it, it was so offensive. I could not eat anything without great misery, and I gradually grew worse.

"Finally I got one of your books, and concluded I would try Peruna, and thank God, I found a relief and a cure for that dreadful disease. I took five bottles of Peruna and two of Manadu, and I now feel like a new man. There is nothing better than Peruna, and I keep a bottle in my house all the time."—A. M. Ikard.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
